

VISUAL MAGNETICS®

Product Warranty

Visual Magnetics products are warranted to be free from defects in material and workmanship and are warranted to perform as advertised when used and applied following Visual Magnetics recommended application and installation techniques.

If Visual Magnetics determines that the materials are not within specification or did not perform as advertised, we will replace those materials purchased or request a return of the out of specification material for full credit.

Proper application and installation techniques can be found on the product label and our website www.visualmagnetics.com. Visual Magnetics shall not be liable for any consequential or incidental damages. A complete copy of Visual Magnetics limited product warranty is available upon request.
